First District Court.

The case occupying the time of the First District court today is that of Daniel H. Sprister vs. Sven O. Neilson, parties of Fairview, Sanpete county, a suit to recover $10,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of the defendant bringing suit against him for embezzling $3,000 feet of lumber, which he failed to make stick, Sprister having been acquitted of the charge by the justice hearing the case. Plaintiff introduces testimony to show that Neilson acted maliciously towards him, and began a prosecution against him for personal injury, there being no probable cause to warrant the complaint against them.

J. W. N. Whitcomb and W. K. Reid are attorneys for the plaintiff, and George Sutherland and Jacob Johnson appear for his opponents. Evidence is still being offered in this case as this issue goes to press.

TICKETS for the G. A. R. benefit, "The Spy of Atlanta" at the opera house, Wednesday evening April 11th, are selling quite well today.

PROBATE JUDGE JONES received a letter from the attorney general at Washington announcing the receipt of the state's resignation and the acceptance of the same.

LET the boys of the G. A. R. have a rousing benefit tomorrow (Wednesday) evening at the opera house. "The Spy of Atlanta" is a thrilling drama and in the cast are some strong actors who have very good support.

It is reported that between two and three hundred of the industrial army have escaped from the quarters at Ogden, and that the majority of them are now tramping southward. It may be that Provo will be invaded.

The work of retrimbering the shaft of the Horn Silver mine at Frisco and also of erecting, new concentrator, hoisting works and ore houses will begin soon. All material has been ordered.

JUSTICE WEDGWOOD is this afternoon hearing a case entitled Carl G. Olson and Anna C. Olson vs. Hans Anderson, suit for $250.00 alleged to be due and owing plaintiffs from defendant for labor done. A. E. Veatch prosecutes and M. M. Warner defends.

JOHN DOYLE, one of the tramps run in by Marshal Knight the other evening, wakened up yesterday morning sufficiently from his drunk to be taken before Justice Wedgwood who sentenced Doyle to five days on the street in lieu of $5.00 which Doyle did not have.

MART BUSHMAN of the Fifth ward is complaining bitterly today over the conduct of Marshal Knight and Policeman Buckley last evening. Mr. Bushman alleges that on last evening he let his cow out to water. He was in the act of opening the gate before driving the time back into the yard, when the officers mentioned came along and took the animal to the stray pound, simply because the animal happened to be "in the street," notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Bushman was there in charge of it, and asked the officers the privilege to drive the animal into the yard, as he was about doing just before they came on the scene. Giles Holden, Mr. Bushman's father-in-law, who lives next door, says that only the other evening he was on horseback going for his cows that he had just before let out to water when he met the officers who drove his cows away to the stray pound, in spite of Mr. Holden's pleading and declaration that he was on horseback solely because he wanted to make sure the cows would not run away from him.

BRITISH VIEW OF THE KEARSARGE.

Why She Won Her Combat With the Confederate Commerce Destroyer.

The old Kearsarge, which sank the Alabama, herself came to a violent end, wrecked in the Caribbean sea, happily with the loss of but one life. It is 80 years since she fought her great fight off Cherbourg, so she has kept the seas a long time. She deserved an honored place on the retired list of the American navy, for she had claims on national gratitude only second to those of the Constitution.

Her fight with the Alabama was a duel conducted very much on the model of the personal contests in the age of chivalry. After a hot pursuit she had at last cornered the Confederate cruiser which had wrought so much ruin to American commerce, and it was well understood that pursuer or pursued must perish. She watched the mouth of Cherbourg harbor, which her enemy was under short notice to leave, and the fight was inevitable. The steamers in port came out to see it, and some of them carried excursion parties from Paris. The Kearsarge won by superior artillery, superior discipline, superior patriotism. Her crew had a nobler idea to fight for than the medley of mercenaries that crowded the privateer. These were a desperate gang, and they had given their officers endless trouble before the Kearsarge took the reformation of their manners in hand.

As the Alabama steamed out of harbor at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, June 19, she found her antagonist waiting for her, and the two approached each other in ever narrowing circles, firing all the time. The Kearsarge was better prepared for defense as well as for attack. Her commander had roughly armored her in the most vulnerable parts by laying all his spare chain cables in folds over the sides. The Alabama opened fire at a distance of about a mile, and when the ships had made seven complete circles she suddenly turned and headed for the land. She was sinking, for both shot and shell had reached her with fearful effect on ship and crew. A British yacht, the Deerhound, which had come out to see the fight, came up in time to save about 40 of the crew as they jumped for their lives. The last shot was fired as she went down. It was a glorious victory. We can say so with a clear conscience now, as THE DAILY NEWS was among the few metropolitan journals that said so when it was won.—London News.

Opals For Bird Ballast.

E. E. Van Dyke informs us that he has killed a number of blue grouse from time to time in the region of Crandall creek and that in the crop of the birds he has found opals. It is thought by Mr. Van Dyke that the birds pick up these opals in the Bad Lands in the vicinity of Red Lodge and use the precious stones for ballast. The opals found in the crop of the mountain grouse are of fine character and of variegated colors.—Red Lodge (N. D.) New Idea.

Good Reason for Faith

Cured of Scrofula by Hood's

Scrofula cures humanity. It is thoroughly infused into the blood. Scrofula is a man free from it, in one form or another. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula promptly, surely, permanently. Thousands of people say so.

For instance, read this:

"I am justified in thinking Hood's Sarsaparilla

a splendid medicine by own experience with

it. I was a great sufferer from scrofula, having dreadful sores in my ears and on my head, sometimes like large boils, discharging all the time. My husband insisted that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Of the first bottle

My Appetite Improved,

and I felt somewhat better. So I bought another bottle, and by the time I was half gone the scrofula had entirely disappeared. I am now entirely free from scrofula and was never in better health. Hood's Sarsaparilla also cured me of a terrible pain in my side, caused by neuralgia of the heart." Mrs. A.

C. Medlock, Orem, Indiana.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, constipation,

biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion,
